From born to rest of my pathetic existence
I couldnt be as impressive as the rest I admired a movie by how they looked No matter how ridicule they acted

I admire how the wear not when they fear
or where they kneel
those carafinas fashinistas of steel

Defending their tribes and values in context but, whats next? Files and files of life?
Not man, i dont think of that I only concentrate on not being fat

Youre not them, dont imitate Shut the fuck up once that would be so nice in my mind, you walk on thin ice

Im always away because of this
Not thinking like you neither them Seems like its the end? Not mine
You fucked up mime, brainless psycho

You admire how the wear
not when they fear
or where they kneel
those carafinas fashinistas of steel

They are paid you know? You fool
Their lifes dont exist anymore after the end Dont jump the fence, you´re not gonna find them
I can be like you but i dont know

Should i be an idiot with you?
Should i scream out loud my pain?
Should i paint my face black and white?

Should i left you without...me?

Ice cream and movies are my only fellows Falling Down on the Carlitos Way to Funland
All in night, days go by and weekend finishes
Good day school, nice to fuck everything up again

Like i always did
No more sorrows and tears
This is the end
Of those Carafinas of steel

Say goodbye one last time to everyone in life
And say hello to the inexistence of fiction
What was your addiction is now your home
One that i will always own.

Can i live with this skeletons?
May i own my eternity away of reality
Say that to the tons of tons of money you won
I dont exist with this mask of a false task

End your life is my homeowork now i only wanted to get to my birthday not too late, not to be framed i own you this one

We admire how the wear
not when they fear
or where they kneel
We´re carafinas fashinistas of steel

I must be like him, imitate them is not an option
I must dress like him, Copy isnt an option
I must do what they did, moving into the motion
This trend of losing the sense of action

Come on, run into my veins

Come on, say your laments
Come on, lets end it there
